The Department of Administrative Services

Ethics Enforcement Officer

3180

State of Connecticut
Office of State Ethics

Ethics Enforcement Officer

PLEASE FOLLOW THE SPECIFIC APPLICATION FILING INSTRUCTIONS AT THE BOTTOM OF THIS PAGE!

The Office of State Ethics is seeking an attorney to serve as Ethics Enforcement Officer, a position of critical importance. This is a new position that offers the exciting challenge to impact the political culture of the State of Connecticut. The Ethics Enforcement Officer has the ability to exercise independence and autonomy in a supportive work environment.

The Ethics Enforcement Officer will be responsible for the Enforcement Division that investigates violations of the Codes of Ethics regulating public officials, lobbyists, and state contractors. The Ethics Enforcement Officer will prosecute alleged violations in probable cause hearings before a judge trial referee and the Citizen's Ethics Advisory Board in public hearings.

We are seeking an attorney devoted to the highest standard of professional ethics and the principles of public service.

The ideal candidate will be an attorney with 10 years experience in the criminal justice system or an attorney with specific experience with fraud cases involving securities or white-collar crime. Experience in ethics or "watchdog" agencies is a plus.

Membership in the CT State Bar or in a reciprocal jurisdiction is required.

In addition to a competitive salary, the State of Connecticut total compensation plan includes a generous benefit package worth over 40% of an employees' annual salary. Benefits and options include: a choice of medical & dental plans designed to suit your need, long & short term disability, life insurance, an excellent retirement plan, deferred compensation plan, 12 paid holidays, personal leave days, sick time and a generous vacation plan.

Closing date is May 31, 2006. Please forward your CV or resume, cover letter and current salary by mail, fax or e-mail to:
